During the session Sister Sapna elaborated on the meaning of stress, illusions about stress and vicious cycle of stressful thinking that goes like thinking - feelings - behavior - performance. She also highlighted on different moods of a person namely, aggressive, anxious, arrogant, bored, confident, undecided and indifferent. How these moods predict the behavior and performance of a person. She concluded by the message that "You only have control over things when you are detached from them." To control your behaviour and mood swings one must have a sense of detachment from this materialistic words.

2. Workshop on Spiritual Meditation (21st August, 2012)

The workshop was conducted on "Spiritual Meditation" by Mr. Kanhaya Lal Sharma, Meditator and Treasurer from Chandigarh Pyramid Spiritual Society. He emphasized on spiritual meditation as the only possible way of connecting to the ultimate reality. He said that while doing meditation one can catch a glimpse of different visions, and these visions represent the aura and sensation of divine power and light in and around us. In the end, techniques of meditation were demonstrated by the resource person who was followed by the workshop of 40 minutes to practice meditation by the student teachers. The main objective of the workshop was to lead a stress free life, to isolate oneself from tensions in order to have a free mind to increase concentration and grasping power. He also highlighted the benefits of Pyramid meditation which is helpful in immediate healing of all diseases, reduces physical and mental stress, increases self confidence, enhances peace and happiness; on the whole Pyramid meditation can help in understanding the purpose of life.

3. National Seminar on "Preparing the Teachers: Challenges and Competencies in North-Western Regions" (23.1.2013)

One day National Seminar on "Preparing the Teachers: Challenges and Competencies in North-Western Regions", sponsored by ICSSR, Panjab University, Chandigarh was organised in the college premises.

Dr. (Mrs.) Jyoti Khanna Principal introduced the theme by saying that the teacher must play a constructive and significant role in taking India to newer heights. She welcomed the Chief Guest Dr. Nandita Singh, Chairperson Department of Education, Panjab University; Guest of Honour Dr. D. R. Vij, an eminent educationist, National President of CTE and the delegates from various colleges. Dr. Nandita Singh talked about the role of a teacher in our society and said that knowledge is within all of us; it has to be manifested by a learned teacher. The teacher should facilitate students to discover the existing knowledge for which cleansing of mind is the prerequisite. We need to follow the Yoga Sutra of Patanjali, which provides a strong base for learning.

In the first technical session, Dr. Jasvir Chahal Associate Prof., Government College of Yoga Education and Health, Sector 23, Chandigarh stirred the minds of participants to think about how to empower our students to think independently to cope up with their day to day challenges. Dr. Aradhana Sharma, Head of the Department of Psychology, DAV College, Sector 10, Chandigarh highlighted the need of special education and inclusive education for special children to make them well adjusted in society and to achieve their educational aims.

In the second technical session, around 30 delegates presented papers on the various themes proposed for the seminar. Dr. D. R. Vij concluded the session by saying that the teacher training institutes should shoulder the responsibility to produce competent teachers who can understand the needs of students and can impart them value education, which is the need of hour. Dr. Jyoti Khanna, Principal thanked all the resource persons and participants for their inputs to make this seminar a success.

Vigilance Awareness Week (29th Oct-3rd Nov, 2012)

NSS volunteers organized Vigilance Awareness Week in various Government Schools of Chandigarh during their practice teaching. The students were made aware of sensitive issues like Consumer Rights through the medium of activities. The week started with a Paper Reading session in the morning assembly, on the meaning and importance of Vigilance awareness in India by NSS Volunteers and the students of the school. The NSS Volunteer attempted to raise a voice against increasing corruption in her paper entitled - "India - losing the shine". She also stated that the common man, in offering bribe, somewhere unknowingly encourages corruption. The students also spoke about consumer awareness where they emphasized the need to check up things like an ISI mark on electronic goods and asking for a computer generated bill or receipt for goods purchased.

Paper Reading session was followed by a soul stirring Patriotic Song - "Ab jaago sab jaago" the theme of the song revolved around individual responsibility to stop corruption and awake to consciousness from deep slumber of accepting things the way they are. It was presented by the students of class 9 and 10.

Poster Making and Slogan Writing Competition were also organized to give way to the numerous creative ideas to express the theme of consumer awareness and anti-corruption.

Communal Harmony Day (30th October, 2012)

In order to instil a feeling of unity and fraternity among the students, a Communal Harmony Day was celebrated in various Government Schools of Chandigarh. The event mainly included a 'Paper Reading' contest in the morning assembly of the school. The topics for 'Paper Reading' included 'Saffron versus Green' 'India Wounded' and 'Sons of the Same Soil' emphasizing that it is one country, our motherland that is shattered with every single loss of life, be it that of a Hindu or a Muslim or a Christian. Students were also enlightened to cast off narrow minded ideals that border on disrespecting the other faiths.

Anti-Cracker Diwali Campaign (3rd Nov 2012)

'Anti-Cracker Diwali Campaign' was organized in various Practice Teaching schools. Various events were organized under the inspiration and guidance of Dr. Richa Chibber & Mrs. Kiranjit Sidhu at various Government Schools of Chandigarh. Colorful posters depicting and endorsing a big "No" to crackers were prepared by the students and later on displayed in the school premises. It was creativity at its best when beautiful slogans were written by students on this occasion conveying a strong message against crackers.

World Blood Donation Day (1-12-12)

To create awareness among people regarding blood donation, an awareness rally was taken out by the NSS volunteers in the Dadu Majra village. Volunteers along with the residents of the village holding placards in their hands participated in the rally. The students raised the slogan 'Donate Blood, Save Lives' during rally. Door to door awareness campaign was also conducted during which NSS volunteers, pointing out to the significance of blood donation, said the blood donated was invariably a life saver during an accident, or for serious ailments such as blood cancer, where donated blood serves for blood transfusion. Persons between 18 and 60 years of age were permitted to donate blood. Breast feeding mothers, pregnant women, and those, who had gone under knife should refrain from blood donation. Throwing light on the mechanism of blood recharge, and clearing misconceptions concerning safety of blood donors, the volunteers stated that the human body hosts over 5 litres of blood and just about 350 millilitres of blood is taken during donation. The students raised the slogan 'Donate Blood, Save Lives' during rally.

Blood Donation Camp (29.12.2012)

As a part of the ongoing Founders Day Celebrations of Dev Samaj, a Blood Donation Camp was organized in collaboration with Govt. Medical College and Hospital, Sector 32, Chandigarh. It was inaugurated by Dr.Raj Bahadur, Director-Principal, GMCH, Sector 32, Chandigarh. This camp has been the regular feature of Dev Samaj College Of Education.

While addressing the gathering, Dr.Raj Bahadur appreciated and congratulated the students of the college for participating in such a noble cause. He also took the opportunity to sensitize the student teacher on social issues like female foeticide, child labour etc. People participated in the cause with immense zeal and enthusiasm. The college students volunteered for coordinating the event by supervising and offering help by guiding people , promoting and helping in organizing the Blood Donation camp. The camp was a great success and in all around hundred blood units were collected. The blood donors included the students of Dev Samaj College, their relatives and the people from the various communities. They were in high spirits and their contribution to this human cause was appreciated by the Chief Guest.

Dr. Jyoti Khanna in her vote of thanks appreciated the commendable organization and the organizers for making the event a great success. The Blood Donation Camp was concluded by honoring the donors with the Blood Donation card and a certificate. Gifts were also distributed among the donors.

During the house to house activity students mark each house for indicating that each child had taken the polio vaccine in this house. In addition to this campaign, save girl child stickers were pasted on each house under 'Save Girl Child Week' during the house to house visits in Pulse Polio Campaign.

SEVEN DAYS NSS SPECIAL CAMP AT VILLAGE DADDU MAJRA (29-09-12 TO 5-10-12)

Dev Samaj College of Education, Sector-36, Chandigarh, organized a seven days NSS camp at village 'Daddu Majra', Chandigarh (U.T.), from 29-09-12 to 5-10-12 under the guidance of NSS programme officers Dr. Richa Sharma and Mrs. Kiranjit Kaur. One hundred ninety five NSS volunteers participated in this seven days camp. The theme of the camp was 'Peace and Literacy'. The report of different days of the camp is given below:

Day 1 (29.9.2012)

. The camp was inaugurated by organizing a visit of International delegates from China, Philippines, Afghanistan, Germany, Srilanka's Peace Ambassadors. On this occasion NSS volunteers presented the NSS song 'Uthe samaj ke liye uthe'. This was followed by an interactive session in which the Peace Ambassadors interacted with NSS volunteers and share their culture and gave stress on Peace and promoted Love, Peace and Brotherhood between the cultures. To make the International Delegates aware about the Indian Culture and Tradition and the NSS volunteers dressed them up in Indian Dresses. They were thrilled with the idea and they appreciated this small gesture of oneness.

A Cultural Program was exchanged between the delegates with the traditional performances of their respective countries. NSS volunteers gave performances specially highlighting the various cultures of our country. It was a new, unique and vital experience. The basic motto of these Peace ambassadors was achieved and it helped developing the culture of 'Non-violence, Peace and Universal Brotherhood.' It was a healthy interaction in which people from six different countries interacted, shared their feeling for spreading Peace and Love at International Forum.

Later Dr. Richa Sharma and Mrs. Kiranjit Kaur, programme officers of the camp explained the whole idea and objectives of the project 'NSS Rainbow' to the NSS volunteers. This unique project broadly covers the seven dimensions: - Blood Donation, Right to Education, De-addiction, Peace, Environment, Knowledge and Culture. The volunteers were then divided into the seven groups. They carried out a survey in the village and sensitized the villagers regarding the 'NSS Rainbow' project. They encouraged the students to participate actively in the NSS rainbow and asked them to work for NSS motto "Not me, But You".

Day 2 (30.9.2012)

On the second day NSS volunteers were taken to village Daddu Majra. The day started with the NSS song 'Uthe samaj ke liye uthe' and later on cleanliness drive was carried out in the village. Cleanliness of environment was complimented with the cleanliness of our mind and souls by the 'Yoga' session and involved the local community in this initiative.

In the evening as a part of their Literacy drive the NSS volunteers taught the children from the local community and help them in solving out their learning problems. As it is said that 'All work and no play, makes Jack a dull boy' and therefore the NSS volunteers not only educated the children but also made them aware of the rich Indian Heritage, by teaching them a Classical dance which was thoroughly enjoyed by the children of the village community.

Day 3 (1.10.2012)

The day started with the NSS song 'Uthe samaj ke liye uthe' which was followed by the cleanliness drive and the 'Yoga' session by our NSS volunteers. NSS programme officers Dr. Richa Sharma and Mrs. Kiranjit Kaur delivered a lecture "On Importance of International Elderly Day". As elders are the backbone of the family, they not only support the family but also nurture it. NSS volunteers divided into groups and were allocated specific area to spend some time with elderly person of that locality. They interacted and spent some quality time with them.

In the afternoon session a rally was taken out to celebrate “World Blood Donation Day”. The main motive of this campaign was to create awareness about blood donation among the people of the community.

In the evening Dr. Nemi Chand, HOD-Department of Public Administration, PGGC, Sector-42 made the students aware of “Right to Education” and its importance. He started with a brain storming session wherein he asked the students to jot down the good and bad points they learnt from their mothers and teachers. He also highlighted the importance of teacher in the society and elaborated that a teacher has the power to shape the society. It was a healthy interaction in which NSS volunteers participated enthusiastically. He said it is the responsibility of teacher to make aware the community about the ‘Right to Education Act’. Awareness is the only tool to make this Act a big success. NSS volunteers prepared ‘Peace badges’ wrote slogans regarding Peace and brotherhood.

Day 4 (2.10.2012)

The day four was marked by the birth anniversary of the father of Nation Mahatma Gandhi Ji. NSS volunteers participated in ‘Walk for Save wildlife’ at Sukhna lake. The rally started at 5:30 AM in the morning and lasted till 8:00 AM. Peace volunteers from 30 different countries participated in this walk. The rally was headed by Mr. Berny Mayer (American Gandhi) which includes 500 volunteers. It was very motivating and unique experience

In the village Daddu Majra NSS programme officers Dr. Richa Sharma and Mrs. Kiranjit Kaur organized the Quiz competition on the Life and History of Mahatma Gandhi. It highlighted the special events which took place in the life of Mahatma. In the afternoon a ‘Painting Competition’ for the community children was organized.

In the evening session NSS volunteers organized a cultural event to pay our tribute to Mahatma Gandhi. To celebrate this occasion the NSS officers had invited Mr. Berny Mayer the ‘American Gandhi’ who has adopted the Philosophy of Gandhi in his real life and who propagates the same. He follows the Gandhi virtues and preaches them as well. This was an overwhelming experience for all of us as we came to know Gandhi and his Philosophy in true sense. This cultural programme was inaugurated with one of Gandhi's favorite song 'Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram' sing by the NSS volunteers.

The children from the village community participated and performed on various songs and dances. Mr. Berny Mayer's lecture on Peace and Truth was a real enlightenment for all of the NSS volunteers. The whole cultural event was applauded and appreciated by Madam Principal Dr. (Mrs.) Jyoti Khanna and was enjoyed by all.

Day 5 (3.10.2012)

On the fifth day of the camp the NSS volunteers invited Sh. O. P. Dhingra, Assistant Director, Haryana Education Department. As the education concerning the ill effects of Drugs becomes an important area of discussion. Mr. O. P. Dhingra held an interactive session about the Drug Abuse in the village community and addressed the teenagers about the ill effects of the village community and they were made aware of the problems, consequences and solutions regarding drug abuse and drug de-addiction.

Another guest of honour for the day was Sh. Bikram Singh Rana, State Liaison officer. He gave a very motivating speech to encourage the volunteers to extend a helping hand to the village community by staying within the environment of the village.

He emphasized on the fact to understand the problems of a village community it is important to be well versed by the village culture and it can only be attained by spending some time with the people of the village by serving them in every possible way and by listening to their problems and then finding the solutions.

Later he was asked to give away the prizes to the children of the village who participated in the painting, dance and poetry recitation competition. All these efforts were made so that the students could sensitize with the village community. The fifth day of the camp was fully-packed by the inauguration of 'Tree Plantation Drive' around the Dronacharya Pond, Daddu Majra by Sh. Bikram Singh Rana and later he flagged off the rally with the slogan of 'Atank ka naash ho, Shanti ka vikas ho''.

In the afternoon Mrs. Manjit Sekhon and Miss Pinky from Panjab University had a special session of Tie and Dye and Block Printing for the women of the village. This came out to be a very fruitful session as the women were very excited and enthusiastic about this session.

Towards the end of the day two very honourable and respected personalities Mrs. Neena Singh and Mohini Lumba, Sanyta Cancer Sanjog, PGI and Government Hospital, sector-32, respectively, was invited. It was an interactive session where they share their own experience of struggling with Breast Cancer and winning it over. They informed the girls and the women of the village community about the symptoms of Breast Cancer and the ways of Breast self examination. It was a brilliant session all in all which was both encouraging and knowledgeable.

Day 6 (4.10.12)

After the hard work and effort put in by all the volunteers in the first five days a lot of relaxation and mental peace was the highest priority for all the NSS volunteers thus the fifth day of the camp started with the session of meditation and life skills by Mrs. Charanjeet. She asked all the students to develop appreciation values starting with the enlisting of all the good things they learnt during the camp. She taught the volunteers about the positivity of life and asked them to have a positive attitude and outlook of life to fight all the grey shades of life. The students felt encouraged and motivated by her lecture and again started their day with a great vigor and zeal.

The next course in action was the celebration of the 'World Animal Day'. The guest of honor was Dr. S. K. Kochar, President of SPCA, Sector-38 west Chandigarh. He gave a lecture on the Safety and Cruelty towards the animals. He inspired the NSS volunteers as well as the villagers to protect their animals and should always look forward for their safety and well being. After this he flagged off the rally with the slogan "Janwaron se Pyar Karo , Desh ka Uddhar Karo". Children from the local community participated in the rally with great zeal and enthusiasm. The rally was vaccination drive for the stray animals. The team of doctors from SPCA and our NSS volunteers jointly made this drive a great success.

Day 7 (5.10.12)

On the valedictory day of the seven days NSS camp, Ms. Paramjeet Kaur, Additional SHO, sector 36 and Ms. Usha Rani, Sub Inspector, sector 39 delivered a lecture on self protection and eve teasing. The interactive session was very fruitful as many women from the village as well as NSS volunteers discussed their problems regarding Eve-Teasing and Self- Protection. Additional SHO, Paramjit Kaur, encouraged the ladies to come forward and raise a voice against the injustice of any kind.

In the afternoon session, a rally was taken out on Eye-Donation with the slogan “Natre Daan Maha Daan”. Children as well as adults from the village participated enthusiastically in the rally.

In the valedictory session Mr. Promod Sharma, Coordinator Yuv Satta, was the Chief Guest. Children from the local community and NSS volunteers presented a colorful show which included patriotic songs, dances and a skit with the title “Nari Shakti ki Pehchan.” The show received applause from local community, staff members and other guests present on the occasion. Student leaders for the NSS Rainbow Project presented the report highlighting the seven aspects of the project. Mr. Promod Sharma appreciated the effort put in by NSS volunteers in involving the local community in all the initiatives taken by them. Dr. Mrs. Jyoti Khanna principal Dev Samaj College of Education thanked the Chief Guest and motivated the NSS volunteers to adopt the values which they have learned during the camp in the future ahead. Celebration of Mat Pita Santan Divas (23.2.2013)

Maat Pita Santan' Divas is a unique way of celebrating parent's day, a regular annual feature of the college. The purpose of this function is to pay tribute to the hard work and sacrifice of the devoted parents who provide guidance, support, and unconditional love to their children. The Chief Guest on the occasion was Sh. I. S. Chadha, (Retd. IFS), Ambassador to UN India. The programme commenced with lighting of the 'Deepshikha' by the chief guest followed by a bhajan "Shardha Bhajan Mat Pita ji, Sharda Bhav Karoon Uphar" was sung by members of the faculty and students.

Stressing the significance of this day, Sh. Nirmal Singh Dhillon, Chairman and Secretary Dev Samaj College in his address said that parents love is unconditional and old age homes are a blot to our culture and civilization. He quoted several instances from Dev Samaj philosophy to bring forth that how gratitude towards parents shapes our thoughts and character.

The students and members' of the staff expressed their feelings of gratitude towards their parents by narrating heart-rending episodes from their lives about the selfless sacrifices made by their parents. Some of the parents also expressed their views on the unique value oriented education provided by the college. Sh. I. S. Chadha, in his brief address emphasized that now a days everybody, whether he is parent, a child, a student or a teacher needs to rethink about his duties as we are drifting away from our cultural values. He further said that parents should be respected and obeyed by children. His views reiterated the role teachers can play in creating the social fibre of the nation.

Principal Dr. Jyoti Khanna thanked the students as well parents for gracing the occasion. She paid gratitude to her parents saying that whatever she is today is only because of their blessings.
