2. INTERACTIVE SESSION : CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN LIFE (DE-ADDICTION PROGRAMME) 10TH APRIL, 2023

. To create awareness about the most prevalent issue among today's youth the NSS UNITS of Dev Samaj College For Education, Sector-36B organised an interactive session under Drug De addiction. The resource person for today, Dr. Nelu, Psychotherapist CEO of Mentorick Ed Tech Platform was humbly welcomed by one of our NSS volunteer Shelly and also was presented with a planter by NSS POs Dr. Madhavi Goyal and Mrs. Karuna Singh. The session commenced, Dr. Nelu gave a brief introduction about herself. Soon after that she provided the students with insight on how there are three stages of drug addiction. The first stage, Use, finding a means to escape by using drugs because of whatsoever reasons but the major reason stands as unemployment or lack of direction in life may take the youth towards using drugs. Further moving she interacted with the students by asking them what picture comes to their minds when you hear the word drug? To which, students gave very discerning answers.

The second stage, Abuse, the abuse of drugs starts when there is a preoccupation of mind in thinking where to find drugs, how to use it and where to use it. This has an adverse effect on mental health, emotional health, physical health, relationships ,etc. Dr. Nelu stated a very crucial quotation, " there is no right way to do wrong things" this explicates how a person is liable to their own actions.

The third and last stage, Addiction, Dr. Nelu elucidated how a person could be considered as an addict. The 3 Cs i.e. Lack of Control, Compulsion and Consequences. A person who reflects any behaviour which includes these three Cs is said to be an addict.

Moving on, the most pivotal thing, how to resolve this problem of drug addiction? She explained the need for solving this problem by corrective thinking or measures. The authorities of India do not use these measures rather put the addicts or people involved with drugs in jails which doesn't prove helpful along with this she also expressed that there is a dire need for the mitigation of stigmas related to this whole concept.

Lastly a personality entry was conducted by Dr. Nelu.

The session was concluded with a vote of thanks given by the NSS POs to Dr. Nelu.

विटी रिपोर्टर | चंडीगढ़

साफ-सफाई, पर्यावरण के संरक्षण, पानी बचाने, शांति कायम रखने पर सिर्फ बात ही नहीं, बल्कि इन सभी पर अमल करना भी जरूरी है। सेक्टर-36, कंपीटीशन, फ्रेंचोपोन प्रांत के जरिए ऐसी बातों के संदेश के साथ ग्लोबल चिल्ड्रेन पीस फेस्ट-2023 का समापन हुआ। इसके तहत ज्यादातर कार्यक्रम सेक्टर-36 के देव समाज कॉलेज ऑफ एजुकेशन में हुए। फेस्ट की थीम थी वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम् - यह सारा संसार एक ही परिवार है। इस फेस्ट को टैरा रथान थी गो ग्लोबल चाई सिंक्र स्पोसल एंड एक्ट लोकल। शनिवार को फेस्ट का आखिरी दिन था। सबसे पहले सेक्टर-42 लेक पर सफाई अभियान चलाया गया। इसके बाद सेक्टर-36 में फेस पेंटिंग कंपीटीशन और फैशन शो हुआ, जो पर्यावरण पर आधारित रहा। फेस पेंटिंग कंपीटीशन में स्टूडेंट्स ने पर्यावरण के सपने बताए। किसी ने पर्यावरण पर टेक्नोलॉजी हावी होते दिखाई, किसी ने जलवरी, पेड़-पौधों, पक्षियों से प्यार करने की बात कही, किसी ने दिखाया कि कैसे धरती का हिस्सा हमारी लापरवाही के कारण खराब होता जा रहा है, पानी की एक-एक बूंद की कीमत का अहसास भी फेस पेंटिंग के जरिए बताया गया। वहीं फैशी ड्रेस कंपीटीशन में भी ऐसा ही प्रयास होता दिखा। ड्रेस को पेपर, घास, पेपर पर पेंटिंग करके डिजाइन कर पहना और पर्यावरण बचाने का संदेश दिया। इसके अलावा क्राट पत्थरी भी हुई। युवसता एनजीओ ने इस फेस्ट को पर्यावरण विभाग-चंडीगढ़, अंतर्राष्ट्रीय सहयोग परिषद, देव समाज कॉलेज ऑफ एजुकेशन, मानव रचना इंटरनेशनल स्कूल आदि के सहयोग से करवाया था।

56. A VALUE ADDED COURSE ON NURTURING TEACHING SKILLS THROUGH DRAMA, ART AND MUSIC 21ST AUGUST, 2023 TO 30TH AUGUST , 2023

NSS UNITS of the college organized a value added course on Nurturing Teaching Skills through Drama, Music and Art. The session was started with a fun activity so that we feel energetic during the whole session. In the workshop, Sir has told us the broad meaning of Education, Teaching and Learning. The session was very interactive. Sir has made us understand the meaning of Human Resource Development with various examples. In the session, we talked about the origin of education. Sir has told us that we have to understand the concepts rather than rote learning . Overall, the session was very useful and helpful for us as we are moving to the teaching domain . The session was ended with some feedbacks and fun activity

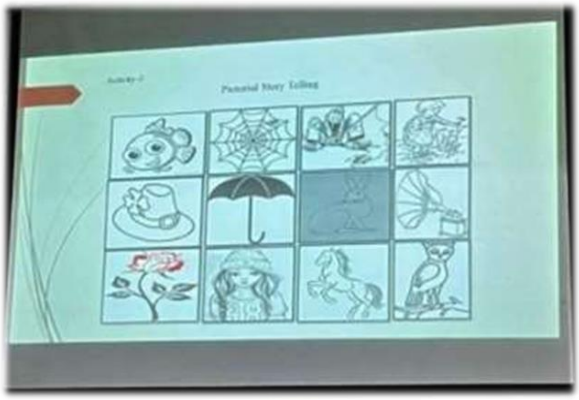

The focus of the session was on Drama, how to introduce the concept of Drama in education. Sir had given us a task by dividing the students according to their subject i.e. Science, Social Science & Economics. For science and social science students, the topic which they had to represent was the world without science and the world without Moustache respectively. For Economics students, the topic was Capitalism. Each of the teams represented their topics in the form of Drama very well. The outcome of the drama in education will be that the students will understand and remember the particular concept during their entire life. There are no winning or losing categories in drama but just for broader knowledge and better understanding of the concept.

Day-3

The session started with a fun activity so that we forgot our hesitation and got connected with everyone present there. The activity was all about making ourselves comfortable in that environment. The theme of the session was storytelling. Sir had given us a task by showing pictures of different objects and we had to make a random story by using those objects and connecting them with each other. That activity raises thinking skills, imagination, expressions, random gestures etc. By doing the task, we forgot about our hesitation and said randomly about the objects. There were some people who took the initiative to perform the task and there were some who needed a little push. Overall, the session was very interactive. The session ended with some feedback and discussion.

Day-4

The session continued with the storytelling. Sir had given us 2 tasks that day. First, everyone has to draw any objects on paper (8 objects) and find a partner. Both the partners exchanged these papers and started telling a story by connecting the objects that appeared on the paper. Secondly, Sir has divided the group of 8 students and given the theme for storytelling. Sir has given the theme “Trip to Delhi” to Group 1 and “A day of sea diving” to Group 2 and so on. Group 1 has the first turn, so the first person of the group starts telling a story and the story continues and ends with the last group member. We had learnt that it boosts our thinking skills, previous experience that played an important role in storytelling, our concentration etc. The session was ended by the last group with their story.

Day-5

The focus of the session was how the painting can be used to understand concepts. Firstly, Sir has told us to draw some objects which depict our childhood. Then our imagination moves towards our childhood and start drawing on our papers. Secondly, Sir has divided us in the group of 6 students and given a chart paper and asked to paint global warming. Everyone started their discussion about the cause and effects of Global Warming. Whatever information a student has, the group has collected that information from each student and drawn a conclusion on the papers with the colours. Sir had also told us not to draw proper objects on the papers, just paint for recognizing the objects. The activity was very informative. The main outcome of the activity is that we only talk about our topic, not gossiping about anything.

On day 6th the students have been given the assignment to prepare a Lesson Plan The assignment, included:

Class ,Subject ,Topic , Art Integrated , Date , Time , Purpose, Instruction, Process followed by, Expected Outcomes

Sir gave us the homework to form a lesson plan on random topic up to the class of 6,7,8,9The students came to learn that how with different arts skills we can teach students any topic such as I choose the Indian constitution in which I opt the art of storytelling, we can take initiative the initiative or imagination to teach students. The students are told to present their ppts what they had done in whole workshop and tried to know what are the outcomes of nurturing, drama, art, music activity One by one we had to present our ppt. They have learnt that we can teach students not only bookish language through our creativity students can not only learn but better understand through these activities.

On day 10th the function had been organized by teaching faculty in which the teachers give us certificates of that workshop. This workshop is not only a workshop but the first step towards the growth to become a skilled teacher and to build our students growth and development of the future.

TALK ON ANIMAL CRUELTY:

The innocence of a human child and innocence of an animal cannot be differentiated. An animal feels as much as a human. To be scientific the biology of every mammal is the same yet the HUMAN ANIMAL knows its way about taking advantage of other species.

Taking this thought in mind, the NSS Unit of Dev Samaj College Of Education, Sector 36B, Chandigarh organised a talk on ANIMAL CRUELTY given by Mr. Inder Sandhu Director of Peedu's People. Mr. Sandhu was welcomed by our NSS PO Dr. Madhavi Goyal and Mrs. Karuna Singh. They endorsed him with a planter.

He started off the session by enlightening the volunteers on the basic concept of natural instinct. He then explicated some old traditions and practices as repeated lies, that is, when we have a fresh and pure mind and someone feeds us the same lies again and again repeatedly we eventually start believing it. Moving on he explained the concept of SPECIESISM and DISASSOCIATING DISTANCING. All the concepts basically explain the reason or cause of animal cruelty. The main aim of this talk was to not only create awareness but also encourage them to help them when it's most needed. After this he also explained ways to take action against such gruesome treatment towards the helpless creatures.

At the end of the session he explained the nature of dogs and how their body language can express their each and every feeling. And the most fulfilling activity under this talk was that NSS volunteers got to meet Daisy, a cute little dog who Mr. Inder and his team rescued from Uganda.

The talk ended on a very positive note and NSS PO Mrs. Karuna Singh presented him and his team with gratitude.

The Students of Dev Samaj College Of Education attended an online national semi organized by Institute for Environment Conservation Advocacy, Hyderabad focussing Teaching the sdg's, a seminar designed especially for educators around the nation.

The resource persons Mr. Samarath Sharma and Mr. Ajay Tanwar talked in detail ab the sdg's.There are three main ways that you can include learning about the Sustaina Development Goals in your school activities: extending current curriculum topics, add specific SDG units or making connections to school events, and national/glo commemorations.

With the many opportunities to enhance current topics by learning about SDGs, it should be possible to map the 17 SDGs to either subjects or themes. It's best to complete this as a whole-staff activity to consider age-appropriateness and accessibility.

A good starting point for younger learners (kindergarten through second grade), for instance, is learning about the SDGs connected to experiences they're more likely to have had—for example, Goal 3, Good Health and Well-Being, as children in this grade range may have visited doctors, dentists, or hospitals. Extend students' learning about themselves in science or health class, including nutrition and hygiene, to consider challenges for those with a lack of access to clean water or sufficient food. A simple experiment with glitter or a spray that only shows up under ultraviolet light can simulate the spread of germs and how water and soap are essential tools to fight this.

The NSS unit of Dev Samaj College of Education organized a workshop on grooming and interview skills by inviting the resource person ‘ Kishwarjeet Chahal’, a famous and talented cosmotologist.

When you're comfortable, you feel more confident. Choose an interview outfit that makes you feel good about how you look as well as feel good about how people are viewing you.

even your accessories can say something in a job interview. Every detail of your interview outfit will speak before you have uttered a word, so think through every choice that you make prior to your teacher interview

Humor is a very important part of being an effective teacher—both for your students and your own sanity. However, leave the quirky socks and ties for another time

This is a prospective employer's first impression of you. Though it may be tempting to show off your style, this is not the proper time to do so. A suit, or at the very least a blazer, are great ways to show an employer that you're taking this opportunity seriously.

College of Education, marched till Sukhna Lake. Prominent amongst those who were present on the occasion included Mr. Pramod Sharma, founder, Yuvsatta, Mr. Sandeep Mittal, Dy. Director (TI)- CSACS-

Chandigarh State AIDS Control Society, Jitender Dahiya, Asstt. Director-Mainstreaming CSACS and Ms. Vitika, Incharge of ‘FSW Rise’-a community-based organization at Manimajra, Chandigarh.

The participants were carrying banners and placards of ‘Women Rights Are Human Rights, ‘Stop HIV Together’, Know AIDS for No AIDS, No More Violence Against Women, Women Rise, Hear Me Roar, Smash the patriarchy, The future is female!, My body is my business, I’m a woman, watch me lead!, I’m strong, I’m a woman, Women deserve better etc. Giving information about the initiative, Mr. Pramod Sharma said that they at Yuvsatta are celebrating a weeklong ‘Inspire Inclusion Week’, which started today with the march for women rights and will end on March 7, 2024 with a ‘Ms. Chandigarh Beauty Contest for Women/Girls from Slum settlements and rural areas of the city’. In between they’ll be launching a ‘Girls Parliament at Dev Samaj College of Education, a free medical clinic for female sex-workers, complimentary film shows for Girls Parliaments Members, in various Schools of the city, poster making and art contests.

With Sex Workers Rights Day on March 3, 2024, HIV/AIDS Advocacy and action was also one of the important agenda of today’s march ‘Inspiring Inclusion’. Mr. Sandeep Mittal of CSACS, sharing his concerns on the occasion expressed that ‘We can stop HIV together. And it’s easy to learn the basics about HIV, how to prevent HIV transmission, and the steps you can take to protect yourself and others. Each one of us need to get tested, need to get involved. And it is possible to stop HIV in the country, but to do so every one of us must act. Prof. Jyoti Kataria of GGDSD College added on women rights that today the under-representation of women in leadership roles does not stem from a lack of competence but from deeply entrenched stereotypes around gender roles. Gendered slogans like “think leader, think male” reveal the prevalent unconscious bias in most workplaces. And we'd like to change such patriarchal mindsets in our lifetimes, which we know will not be easy, so we are out in the open even in bad weather, showcasing our strength and promoting the cause of ‘Inspire Inclusion’. Mr. Jitender Dahiya of CSACS added that we should share our knowledge of HIV . Use social media to increase HIV awareness. Support people living with HIV. Have an open, honest conversation about staying safe and healthy. Listen to the challenges that people living with HIV face and provide support for their special needs. Volunteer in your community.

The march ended with a pledge to do more work for women rights, gender equity and to stop HIV/AIDS.

116. INTERNATIONAL WOMEN DAY 7TH MARCH, 2014 WATCHING MOVIE AT PICCADILLY SQUARE

International Women's Day aims to bring attention to equality for women and highlights the challenges and discrimination that women still face when it comes to offering equal pay, leadership opportunities and most importantly, access to education. It aims to promote unity and solidarity amongst women across the world.

To celebrate women's day NSS unit of Dev Samaj College of Education took students of the college to piccadilly theater to watch the movie and gain some insights into the life of women in Kashmir as shown in the movie 'Article 370'

It argues that the autonomy of the feminist subject in India has been subsumed within various other discourses, due to which the feminist subject of the discourse is still denied the necessary space. The article uses the case study of Jammu and Kashmir and argues that women face triple jeopardy being subjected to multiple counter-discourses to their autonomy. Feminism and autonomy in Kashmir cannot be defined in isolation; gender power relations intersect with the ethnic conflict of partitions as well as the militarization of Kashmir. It accounts for women's positions throughout history, including the ancient monarchical system, which resulted in a syncretic Kasmiriyat tradition, the Dogra regime with its alliances and misalignments with British rule, and the violence of the Indian subcontinent's partition.

The students of the college enjoyed watching the movie and got inspired by it.

India's Techadesymbolizes the country's commitment to embracing the digital age, generating job opportunities, enhancing quality of life, and establishing a robust presence in the global technology landscape.

To create an end-to-end semiconductor ecosystem, the Government of India has set up the India Semiconductor Mission, enabling the nation to become a significant player in the global semiconductor industry.

The three semiconductor facilities are India's First Fab Facility in Dholera, Gujarat, an OSAT facility in Sanand, Gujarat, and another OSAT facility in Morigaon, Assam.

Furthermore Mrs. Prabhjot Kaur Atwal showed her gratitude and appreciated the students for their efforts towards spreading awareness about this social cause. She enlightened us by spreading awareness about how the issue of drug abuse came to light when a survey of 2018 thoroughly explained the magnitude of substance abuse and how the 72 districts all over India were vulnerable including the U.T. of Chandigarh.

The winners of the PowerPoint presentation contest were recently announced.
