Water and Waste Management Competition - 11th December 2023

Dev Samaj College of Education, Sector 36 CHD, in collaboration with Yuvsatta-NGO, organized a competition on Water and Waste Management on 11th December 2023. The event included various competitions such as model-making, short video making, and flashcard creation, with only five entries being awarded.

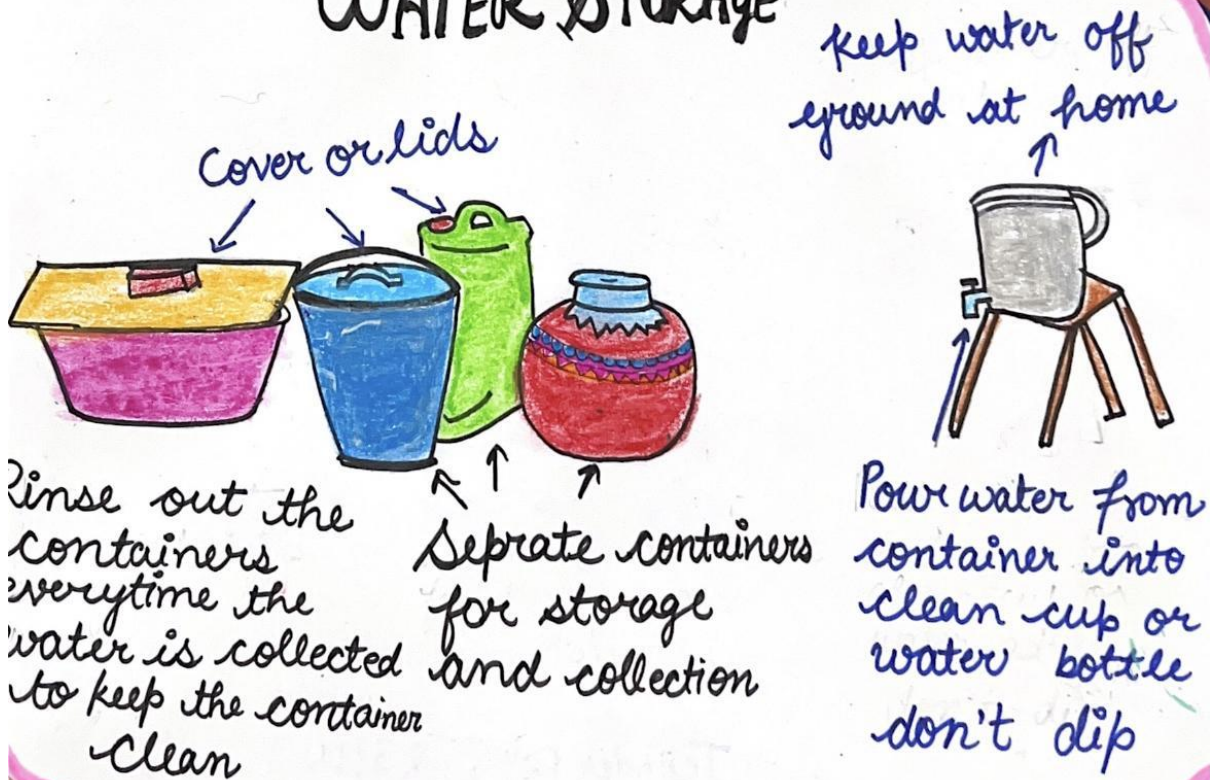

Students were provided with detailed instructions and guidelines for each competition. The models needed to be functional, the videos were to be 2-3 minutes in length, and the time allocated for creating flashcards was 4 minutes. Participants demonstrated great efficiency in completing all their submissions on time, creating informative and engaging posters and videos that showcased their understanding of water and waste management issues.
