Workshop on Universal Themes of Learning: International Day of People with Disabilities - 4th December 2023

The International Day of People with Disabilities was observed at the college with a workshop focused on the theme "Universal Design of Learning". The event featured a special educator, Ms. Manisha from the Government Rehabilitation Institute for Intellectual Disabilities (GRIID), who was invited to share her insights on creating inclusive educational environments.

The workshop aimed to promote the rights and well-being of persons with disabilities across all sectors of society and development. It sought to raise awareness about the challenges and needs of individuals with disabilities in political, social, economic, and cultural aspects of life. Ms. Manisha emphasized the importance of adopting a universal design of learning that accommodates diverse learning styles and needs, ensuring equal opportunities for all students. This workshop was a step towards fostering an inclusive educational culture that respects and supports every individual's right to quality education.
